

Observed and forecasted cumulative COVID-19 deaths in the US

The IHME and MOBS models are conditional on existing social distancing measures continuing through the projected time-period shown. The CU models make different assumptions about the effectiveness of current interventions. Intervals shown are at the 95% uncertainty level.